JOURNALISM WORKSHOP WILL TAKE PLACE ON CAMPUS

"Journalism West" is the name selected for the first in an annual series of workshops for high school journalism students which will take place on campus Saturday (March 4). Some 150 students from 13 high schools in San Luis Obispo County and Northern Santa Barbara County are expected to attend the day-long conference, according to John R. Healey, head of the Technical Journalism Department and coordinator for the event.

Topics to be discussed during the workshop, Healey said, will range from careers in journalism, feature writing, and photography, to campus coverage and relationships between school newspapers and administrations.

Speakers scheduled to take part include Julius Gius of Ventura, editorial director for the John P. Scripps Newspapers; Star Jenkins, a free lance writer and member of the college English and Speech Department faculty; Elliott Curry, a feature writer and reporter for the San Luis Obispo Telegram-Tribune; and Russel J. Duval, vice principal of San Luis Obispo Senior High School. Also, James Vestal, chief photographer for the San Luis Obispo Telegram-Tribune; Jack Ward, publications advisor for Righetti High School, Santa Maria; James Squires, chief photographer for the Santa Maria Times; and Bill Garner, editor of Fore and Aft, the student newspaper for Cabrillo High School in Lompoc.

Healey said last week that invitations to the workshop had been sent to Atascadero Union High School, Lompoc High School, Paso Robles Union High School, Templeton High School, Morro Bay High School, Shandon High School, Coast Union High School of Cambria, Santa Maria High School, San Luis Obispo Senior High School, Righetti High School of Santa Maria; Mission High School of San Luis Obispo, and Cabrillo High School of Lompoc.

Joint sponsors of the workshop are the Technical Journalism Department, the college chapter of Sigma Delta Chi national professional journalism society, and the student Press Association.

DISCUSSION ON "THE VILLAGER OF VIET NAM" SLATED FOR STAFF CLUB LUNCHEON

"The Villager of Viet Nam" will be the subject when Jay Henry, presently a graduate student on campus, addresses the Staff Club luncheon meeting being planned for Thursday (March 2), beginning at noon, in the Staff Dining Room.

Henry, who earned his Bachelor of Science Degree at Cal Poly, is presently working on requirements for his teaching credential. A former end on the Mustang football varsity, he entered the Marine Corps and reached the rank of captain before returning to civilian life. He captured much of the military activity as well as village life of Viet Nam on film during his tour of duty there.

All members of the college faculty and staff are invited to hear his talk.

FEBRUARY PAY WARRANTS WILL BE AVAILABLE THURSDAY

An announcement received from the Business Management Division last week informs state employees that the February pay period runs through tomorrow (March 1). Salary warrants for the period will be available in Room 114 of the Administration Building beginning Thursday (March 2) morning.

FEBRUARY ISSUE OF "C S C REVIEW" DISTRIBUTED

Copies of the February issue of The California State Colleges Review, which contain a rather thorough discussion of the recently-instituted Tax Deferred Annuity Plan for faculty and staff of the state colleges, arrived on campus last week and have been distributed through the college mail system. Those who did not receive copies through that means and still wish to receive one are invited to pick them up either in the Public Relations Office, Room 216, Administration Building, or in the Faculty Reading Room, Dexter Memorial Library.

DICKSON NAMED CHAIRMAN OF GENERAL EDUCATION COMMITTEE

Bruce Dickson, a member of the Soil Science Department faculty, has been elected chairman of the recently-formed college General Education Committee. Dr. Dickson, who was elected during the second meeting of the new nine-member committee, will serve for a one-year term.

In addition to discussions on the background of two of the problems pointed out by Vice President and Chief Executive Officer Dale W. Andrews in his memorandum establishing the committee, members of the group reviewed the changes in general education requirements that will appear in the 1967-68 Catalog Issue of the California State Polytechnic College Bulletin.

Nominated in accordance with guidelines for appointment and operation of the committee recommended by the College Executive Council and appointed by Dr. Andrews, members of the committee include two representatives from each of the schools and Curriculum Coordinator David W. Cook, who was appointed secretary. The formation of this committee was suggested by the Faculty-Staff Council Curriculum and Instruction Committee and recommended by both the chairman of the council and the Executive Council.

Expiration dates for terms of members presently on the committee have been established so that those of members representing the same instructional school will not expire simultaneously. Members of the committee and the expiration dates of their terms are:

School of Agriculture

E. Wesley Conner, Ornamental Horticulture Department	1970 *
Bruce Dickson, Soil Science Department	1969

School of Applied Arts

Wesley T. Dunn, Printing Engineering and Management Department	1970
Alan L. Eliason, Business Administration Department	1969

School of Applied Sciences

William M. Alexander, Social Sciences Department	1971
John Applegarth, Biological Sciences Department	1968

School of Engineering

Enrico Bongio, Welding and Metallurgical Engineering Department	1971
Howard F. Stoner, Mechanical Engineering Department	1968

* - Terms of office end January 1.

SHOWING OF FILM FROM MEXICO PLANNED

Macario, a film made in Mexico under the direction of Roberto Gavaldon, is the next presentation of the College Union Fine Arts Film Series for 1966-67. Separate showings are planned for Friday (March 3) evening, beginning at 7:00 and 9:30 p.m. in the Air Conditioning Auditorium. Cost of admission will be $.50.

Recipient of several awards both in the United States and abroad, Macario is the story of a poor Mexican peasant who revolts against his constant hunger and vows never to eat again until he has a whole turkey to himself. The dialog is in Spanish with subtitles in English.

CAMPUS PRODUCTION OF SHAW PLAY SLATED THURSDAY, FRIDAY, AND SATURDAY NIGHTS

The Devil's Disciple, a melodrama by George Bernard Shaw, will be staged on campus Thursday, Friday, and Saturday (March 2-4) evenings. The play, produced by the English and Speech Department, will begin at 8:30 p.m., each evening, in the college Theater. Admission will be by season tickets purchased earlier in the academic year or individual tickets purchased for this production.

Director of the play, which will feature a 60-member cast, is Murray Smith of the English and Speech Department faculty. Elaine Sullivan, a fourth-year English major is stage manager.

Plot of the Shaw play centers around the Revolutionary War period in American history. Richard Dudgeon, called the "Devil's Disciple" by his disapproving family, delights in being an individualist. He revolts against the tight-laced views of the time, and his independence and courage provide the deciding force in a war-time crisis.

Season tickets are priced at $1.00 for Cal Poly ASI card holders and $1.50 for the public, and may be purchased at the Associated Students, Inc., office or at Theater ticket windows on nights of performances.

"BOOKS AT HIGH NOON" SERIES SLATES REVIEW OF "TURMOIL IN MEXICO"

William A. Keleher's Turmoil in Mexico, 1846-1868 will be the topic for discussion when Joseph Loughran of San Luis Obispo, a guest reviewer, addresses the Books at High Noon series luncheon next Tuesday (March 7), starting at noon, in the Staff Dining Room.

According to Dr. Loughran, the Battle of Glorietta Pass, the highest point on the Santa Fe railway system, was the Gettysburg of the West. By the time Texas had joined the Confederacy, the Confederates hoped to stop the flow of gold from California to the Union and to detach all the Southwest and make it a slave state. The cream of the American army in the Southwest were undecided whether to give their loyalty to the Union or the Confederacy. The Battle of Glorietta made the decision.

On today's (Tuesday, February 28) program Dale Federer of the Education Department will review I Never Promised You a Rose Garden by Hannah Green. Starting time and place for today's meeting are both the same as those announced above for next week's luncheon.

TEE CARTER ELECTED "MISS CAL POLY;" WILL REIGN OVER 35TH POLY ROYAL ACTIVITIES

Tee Carter, an attractive 20-year-old blonde, has been named "Miss Cal Poly, Queen of Poly Royal" for 1967 and will serve as official hostess and queen for Cal Poly's 35th annual Poly Royal open house, April 28-29. A senior majoring in home economics, Miss Carter was chosen during a two-day election held by members of the college student body February 20-21. She is a native of Atherton.

Selection of Miss Carter for the honor was announced during a brief press conference held on campus following close of the election. The new "Miss Cal Poly" will begin her duties as official representative and hostess for the two-day festival soon with appearances on television and radio programs and visits to newspapers and other organizations throughout the state. Climax of her reign will come April 29 when she will be officially crowned during the Coronation Ball, traditional final event of Poly Royal.

PIANO DUO WILL PERFORM DURING COLLEGE HOUR CONCERT

Ronald V. Ratcliffe and Rosalie Davidson will perform their fourth two-piano program for the campus College Hour Concert series, Thursday (March 2), beginning at 11:00 a.m., in the Theater. Ratcliffe is a member of the Music Department faculty, while Mrs. Davidson is the wife of Harold P. Davidson, chairman of the Music Department.

Included on Thursday morning's concert program will be "Sonata for Two Pianos" by W. F. Bach, oldest son of J. S. Bach; "Sonata for Two Keyboards," by A. Solar, an 18th Century Spanish monk; three pieces for two pianos, including "Ostinato," "Romance," and "Fantastic Waltz," by A. Khachaturian, a 20th Century Russian composer; and five waltzes by J. Brahms, a 19th Century German composer.

The College Hour Concert series is sponsored on a monthly basis by the college Music Department. Open to the campus community as well as the public, the individual programs are free of an admission charge.

WHO . . . WHAT . . . WHEN . . . WHERE ? ? ?

Clare G. Rayner, Music Department, has been named a recipient of a post-doctoral research fellowship in musicology by the William Andrews Clark Memorial Library at University of California at Los Angeles. Under the award, Dr. Rayner will spend six weeks this summer working with the library's distinguished collection of 17th Century English sources. He is one of six recipients of the fellowship who come from college and universities from across the nation.

Daniel C. Chase, head of Agricultural Business Management, is author of the lead article in the February, 1967, edition of The Rural Realtor, official publication of the National Institute of Farm and Land Brokers. Title of Dr. Chase's article, which is adapted from a presentation he made before the eighth annual Farms and Lands Educational Conference held on campus last summer, is "Key Tools in Agro-Sales Programs."

John R. Healey, head of Technical Journalism, took part in annual meetings of the California Intercollegiate Press Association, which were held last Thursday, Friday, and Saturday (February 23-25), in Sacramento. He accompanied students who were delegates to the meetings.

Alfred W. Amaral, Jr., Agricultural Business Management, was judge for Sectional Farm Program Competition of the Bureau of Agricultural Education, held February 13-16, in conjunction with the Wells Fargo Bank.

George Hasslein, head of Architecture and Architectural Engineering, was a guest speaker at a conference of the American Institute of Architects which took place last Saturday (February 25) at the University of Texas. He joined a distinguished list of speakers who addressed the conference.

Harry Finch, Biological Sciences; Howard Rhoads, Crops; Howard Brown, head of Ornamental Horticulture; and Winton Frey, also Ornamental Horticulture, were among those who helped stage an Area Groundsmen Training Session, held February 17, in the Air Conditioning Auditorium on campus.

DEADLINE FOR ARTICLES APPEARING IN NEXT WEEK'S STAFF BULLETIN IS FRIDAY NOON

NOMINATIONS FOR NEW MEMBERS OF F-S COUNCIL DUE SOON

Nominations for members of the Faculty-Staff Council to replace those whose terms of office end in June are due next Monday (March 6), according to an announcement received recently from Glenn E. Noble, head of the Biological Sciences Department and chairman of the council's Elections Committee. Election of the various representatives must be completed not later than April 5, he said.

Dr. Noble's announcement of procedures to be followed in carrying out the election and a complete list of members of the council, including the date of expiration of their term of office, was distributed as an attachment to last week's issue of Staff Bulletin.

FINE ARTS COMMITTEE NEEDS CHAPERONES FOR MUSIC FESTIVAL

Chaperones are needed for the residence areas which will house entrants in the Music Festival, which will take place on campus April 8, under sponsorship of the student College Union Fine Arts Committee. Members of the campus faculty and staff who are willing to participate in that capacity are invited to contact Student Activities Advisor Cleo Bauer (546-2476).

TIME FOR GENERAL MEETING OF CAL POLY WOMEN'S CLUB CHANGED

Time of the general meeting of members of the Cal Poly Women's Club, which is being planned to take place next Tuesday (March 7) evening in the campus Theater, has been changed to 7:30 p.m., according to an announcement from the club. To be followed by a refreshment hour, the program will feature the Men's and Women's Glee Clubs of the college under direction of Harold P. Davidson, head of the Music Department.

Also on tap for members of the club during the next few days are meetings of four special interest groups including the Bridge, Sewing, and Travel Sections and the Walking Group.

Bridge Section - Next meeting of the Bridge Section of the club is being planned for Monday (March 6) evening. It will take place in Room 129 of Dexter Memorial Library beginning at 8:00 p.m.

Sewing Section - The home of Mrs. Dean Trembly, 252 Albert Drive, San Luis Obispo, will be the site of the next meeting of the CPWC's Sewing Section. It is being planned for next Tuesday (March 7), starting at 2:00 p.m.

Walking Group - Those interested in taking a walk in the Country Club area south of San Luis Obispo are invited to gather with members of the women's club's Walking Group for their meeting being planned for next Tuesday (March 7) morning. Those expecting to take part are invited to gather in the parking area at the Country Club at 9:00 a.m. to begin the walk.

Travel Section - Mr. and Mrs. Richard I. Leach will use words and pictures to describe their recent trip through Russia, Poland, and Iceland when members of the CPWC's Travel Section hold a dinner meeting the evening of March 13. Scheduled for 6:30 p.m., it will take place in the Staff Dining Room. Reservations, which must be made by March 8, may be made by calling Mrs. Loren Nicholson (543-7677), Mrs. Vance Lewis (543-6326), or Mrs. Lloyd Lamouria (544-2486). Cost of the dinner meeting, to which all interested members of the faculty and staff and their wives are invited, will be $2.00 per person.

DEADLINE FOR RECEIPT OF "OUTSTANDING TEACHER" NOMINATIONS IS TOMORROW

Deadline for receipt of nominations for Cal Poly's "Outstanding Teacher of 1966-67" is tomorrow (Wednesday, March 1), according to information issued recently by the Outstanding Teacher Recognition Award Committee. Nominations, which may be made either by members of the student body or the faculty or staff, should be forwarded to "Chairman, Outstanding Teacher Recognition Award Committee, c/o General Office I" on or before that date.

Forms for making the nominations may be secured from General Office I or from George Mach, a member of the Mathematics Department faculty who is on the committee.

ATHLETIC TEAMS SLATE HOME ACTION THIS WEEKEND

A virtual deluge of local sports action is on tap for campus fans this week. Included on the schedule are contests involving the varsity wrestling, baseball, and track and field teams and the frosh baseball and track and field clubs.

One of the first athletic events to match teams from the two Cal Polys, a wrestling match between Coach Vaughan Hitchcock's Mustangs and the grapplers from Cal Poly at Pomona, planned for 7:30 p.m., Friday (March 3), opens the weekend of sports activity. For the Mustang wrestlers who last weekend won the California Collegiate Athletic Association Tournament with a new record total of 127 points, Friday evening's encounter will be their final dual meet of the season. Their next action will come March 10-11 when they enter the NCAA's National College Division Championship Tournament in Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Coach Dick Purcell's varsity and freshman track and field teams open their 1967 seasons Saturday (March 4) afternoon when they host Westmont College in a meet which is planned to begin at 1:00 p.m. on the campus track. Advance reports from the teams' training quarters indicate that this year's teams may be among the best in Cal Poly history. They should provide several exciting afternoons of track and field activity before the season ends in June.

Certainly not to be forgotten in the week's sports calendar is Coach Bill Hicks' baseball team, which returns to the campus diamond for a doubleheader with Chapman College Saturday afternoon. Game time will be 12:30 p.m. Games played last weekend found the Mustangs on the road where they lost three games to the nationally-ranked University of California at Los Angeles and University of Southern California teams. Coach Ernie Zampese's frosh diamond club gets its only action of the week Saturday afternoon when it journeys to San Luis Obispo to host Cuesta College in a single contest.

A highlight of the past week's sports activity was the resounding triumph Coach Stuart Chestnut's Mustang basketball varsity recorded over Fresno State College. Playing in their final encounter of the 1966-67 season, they defeated the FSC five 95-79 to topple the Bulldogs from their leadership of the CCAA. The win gave the Mustangs their first winning season in five years (12-11).

SUPPLY OF 1966-67 CATALOGS EXHAUSTED

Supplies of the 1966-67 Catalog Issue of the California State Polytechnic College Bulletin have been depleted, according to an announcement made last week by C. Paul Winner, associate dean, admissions and records. He said that additional copies of the 1966-67 Catalog Issue were not expected and that it would be sometime in mid-May before the 1967-68 issue would become available.

SHOWING OF U S I A FILM PLANNED

Interested members of the campus faculty and staff are invited to attend a showing of the motion picture filmed on campus last fall by a production crew from the United States Information Agency. The showing is being planned for Thursday (March 2), starting at 3:00 p.m., in Room 107 of the Administration Building.

The film, which runs some 15 minutes in length, was produced with the purpose of describing Cal Poly and its unique qualities for overseas television audiences, particularly those in Iran and other Middle East nations. The sound track is in Farsi but copies of an English translation of the script will be available at Thursday afternoon's presentation.

FACULTY, STAFF INVITED TO ATTEND RODEO "SEMINAR"

All members of the college faculty and staff and their families have been invited to take part in a Rodeo Seminar being planned for Saturday (March 4), starting at 8:00 a.m., in Collet Arena. It is being planned in conjunction with an intramural rodeo which will be taking place at the time and should offer an excellent opportunity to learn about collegiate rodeo. William Gibford, a member of the Animal Husbandry Department faculty and coach for the Cal Poly Rodeo Team, will conduct the seminar and a question and answer period.

R O T C UNIT ISSUES REMINDER ON MILITARY BALL

The following announcement, received last week from the Military Science Department, is reproduced in its entirety as an information item for members of the college faculty and staff:

"Scabbard and Blade, Army ROTC Honor Society, reminds staff and faculty that the annual Military Ball will be held Saturday, 4 March, from 9:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m., at the Cal Poly Men's Gym. The Ball is semi-formal; music by the Cal Poly Collegians. Tickets at $2.00 per couple may be obtained from any ROTC student, from the Military Science Department Administration Office, Lib. 115, or at the Ball."
